

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others; and,

Whereas, Cheryl Nincehelsner began her career with the state of South Dakota on May 17, 1976, and over the past 30 years has worked for the Department of Education, Supreme Court and Game, Fish & Parks; and,

Whereas, Cheryl will retire from the Engineering office of Game, Fish & Parks as a senior secretary where her office organizational skills to manage projects will be difficult to replace; and,

Whereas, Cheryl's efficiency, time management skills and infectious laughter will be missed by her coworkers; and,

Whereas, Cheryl and her husband, Denny, have three children: Trent, Blake and Kelsey, and they have also been blessed with one grandson, Chase, all of whom will consume their fair share of her retirement time; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the many accomplishments of this employee:

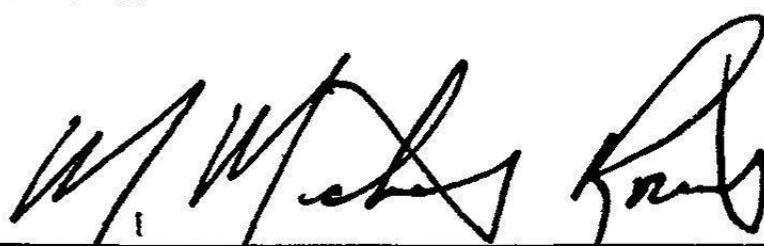

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 22, 2006, as in South Dakota, and I join with her family and friends in wishing her well in her retirement and thanking her for her service.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Nineteenth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
